VIOLENCE AND HARASSMENT AGAINST WOMEN:

- ✘ NOT IN OUR WORKPLACE
- ✘ NOT IN OUR UNION

UNIONS
SAY NO TO VIOLENCE

ALL FORMS OF VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ARE UNACCEPTABLE!

Violence seriously impacts women workers' lives around the globe, with sexual harassment its most reported form. Violence against women is a violation of women's human rights. It is an obstacle to gender equality. Violence against women at work is a core trade union issue affecting workers' rights, safety, health and dignity.

OUR UNION PLEDGES:

To take a public stand against all forms of violence and harassment against women and to condemn all attitudes and actions that perpetuate sexism and violence

To take up the issue as a priority in our union and to allocate the necessary resources for activities aimed at preventing and combating this violation of women's rights

To foster a culture of respect for women within our union by raising the awareness of our members, staff and officials and providing education on the importance of eradicating violence and harassment in the workplace and in our union

To encourage our members to actively take a stand against violence and harassment against women, especially in their own workplaces

To organise campaigns aimed at preventing and combating violence against women

To demand that governments enact and enforce laws to protect women from violence

To demand that employers develop policies against all forms of violence and harassment at work, and promote awareness among their employees on the devastating impacts of violence against women and the importance of eradicating it

To demand that employers develop concrete policies and procedures to prevent and combat all forms of violence against women in their premises and supply chains, and establish safe mechanisms for women to turn to if they are assaulted or attacked at work

To include demands for the eradication of violence and harassment against women in our collective bargaining claims.
